

Just wanted to say that you should leave the "do not call" law alone in New Jersey. My phone has never been quieter and it is a relief not to have to wait for the answering machine to kick on before answering the phone.